MARKETING DIRECTOR MOVES ON

Tourism Tropical North Queensland's Director of Marketing, David Rose, will next month be exchanging the sun-kissed beaches of Cairns and the Great Barrier Reef for Australia's capital.

After three years with Australia's largest regional tourism organisation, David has accepted the role of Head of Communications with the British High Commission based in Canberra.

British-born David has worked in a range of tourism related roles, including positions with Tourism New South Wales, Tourism Tasmania, and also with Austrade, the Australian Trade Commission as Manager, Corporate Communications.
