CAIRNS COMPETITOR IIN GUAM XTERRA

Continental Micronesia is one of the sponsors of the Guam XTERRA Off-Road Triathlon. The event began 5 years ago as a training run for another triathlon event in Micronesia. Competitors from the military community in Guam have embraced the event and propelled its status to international standing. This year a field of international professional athletes will compete alongside locals.

TTNQ introduced local athlete Mike Le Roux to Continental Micronesia colleagues in Guam with a view to elevating interest in some of the sporting events in Tropical North Queensland.

Mike will race on Saturday 4 April in this year's Guam XTERRA. The event which starts with a 1km surf swim followed by a 31km mountain bike ride and finishes with an unforgettable 8.2km trail run that has athletes navigating through jungle, rivers and down slippery waterfalls.

We wish Mike well in the race says TTNQ Chief Executive Office Rob Giason.
